

About Cornell and Ithaca

Cornell's natural beauty – the nearby lake, waterfalls and gardens – sets the campus apart from others in the Ivy League.

Explore the campus and the Finger Lakes Region's most celebrated city, Ithaca. At the southern tip of Cayuga Lake – the longest of the Finger Lakes – Ithaca is one of the best college towns in the country.

For more information about Cornell or Ithaca, please visit our website at:
www.ilr.cornell.edu/conferencecenter

www.ilr.cornell.edu/conferencecenter

ILR Conference Center

in King-Shaw Hall

State-of-the-art meeting and professional training facility

Cornell University
ILR School

In the heart of one of the world's most beautiful campuses, the Cornell University ILR School offers a world-class venue for meetings of two to 200 attendees. Look for the conference center's iconic cupola to help guide you to the center.

Arbitrations • Celebrations
Conferences • Mediations
Seminars • Workshops

The ILR Conference Center's professional staff will meet your needs – from choosing a menu to setting up a room for optimum use to troubleshooting technical issues. The facility provides amenities including:

- ADA access for people with disabilities
- Free Wi-Fi access throughout the complex
- Ergonomic seating
- On-site technical expertise and room set-up assistance
- Event planning assistance and on-site manager
- Outdoor courtyard
- Flexible scheduling – reserve for one day or weeks
- Tack-able wall surfaces
- Four facility levels for varied accommodations
- Professional catering services
- Video Teleconferencing

The ILR Conference Center is centrally located on Cornell's campus at:

140 Garden Ave.
Ithaca, NY 14853

For more information,
please contact us at:

ilrconferencecenter@cornell.edu
607.255.4401

For NYC events, consider the ILR Conference Center in Manhattan. For more information: 212-340-2800.

ILR School
ADVANCING THE WORLD OF WORK