

MONTSERRAT MILLER

Montserrat Miller is a Partner in the Immigration Compliance and Government Relations Practice Teams of Arnall Golden Gregory LLP (AGG) located in Washington, DC. Over the past 15 years, Ms. Miller's experience includes work in the public-sector, private practice and in the court room. Ms. Miller represents the National Association of Professional Background Screeners (NAPBS) on federal legislative and agency matters.

Ms. Miller focuses her practice on providing clients, such as small business owners, major corporations, trade associations and various coalitions, with strategic advice and counseling. She represents clients on Capitol Hill and before government agencies, including the Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Prior to joining AGG, Ms. Miller was in private practice with Greenberg Traurig LLP. She has worked in the U.S. Senate as Judiciary Committee Counsel to Senator Dianne Feinstein, advising her on immigration, homeland security, and data privacy and security matters. Before working on Capitol Hill, Ms. Miller was in private practice and began her legal career as a trial attorney for the U.S. Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service, entering service through the Attorney General's Honors Program.
