

ALEXANDER COLVIN

Martin F. Scheinman Professor of Conflict Resolution, Cornell University, ILR School

LERA Session Title: Strengthening the Employment Arbitrator Profession: Connecting Research, Policy and Practice

Paper Title: Research Perspectives

Paper Abstract:

Will present results from a large-scale survey of employment arbitrators being conducted with the sponsorship of the National Academy of Arbitrators Research and Education Fund. This survey is examining the current state of the employment arbitration profession, including the characteristics of the professional practices of arbitrators and how arbitrators approach their decision-making processes.