

Western Intellectual Tradition: Fall 2019

Courses must be taken for a letter grade in order to count towards the ILR Distribution Requirement. A course that introduces students to the foundation of “Western” political, economic, and legal thought which covers a) a period of time broad enough to affect contemporary thought; and b) at least two thinkers, authors, or contributors to the Western Intellectual Tradition.

Students may submit a request to the Office of Student Services to have a Cornell University course added to one of the lists. A request must include a full course description and a syllabus outlining the course readings.

Bolded courses are offered in Fall 2019
